Correction of Authorship

The editorial office has received a written statement from Professor Savelii Kukharets, whose name was published as “Savelii Kuharets” in the author list of the article, stating that he did not participate in the research, data processing, manuscript preparation, or revision of the manuscript and that he did not provide consent to be listed as an author of the publication.

In accordance with his request, his name has been removed from the author list. This corrigendum is therefore issued to correct the authorship of the article and to ensure that the published authorship and bibliographic record accurately reflect the actual contribution and authorship of the work.

The authorship of the article should be considered corrected accordingly. All other aspects of the published article remain unchanged.
